Mike Calway-Fagen: In full sight

Opening Reception: Saturday, July 13th, 2013

Threesquared is excited to present new works by Mike Calway-Fagen. The exhibition incorporates sculpture, photography, and a selected group of collages from his series, In full sight, which consists of over 200 works on Bristol board.

Mike Calway-Fagen hails from Nashville, Tennessee and received a BFA from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville and an MFA from the University of California in San Diego. He was most recently a Fellow at the Fine Arts Work Center in

Provincetown, MA. He has also attended the Skowhegan

School of Painting and Sculpture, residencies at Sculpture Space in Utica, NY and the Bemis Center for Contemporary Art in Omaha, NE among others. He has received awards from the Joan Mitchell Foundation, The Hamiltonian Fellowship, and the state of Tennessee. His work has been reviewed in publications including Art Papers and World Sculpture Magazine. He also curates and has put together exhibitions in Miami, FL, San Diego, CA, Nashville, TN, and Athens, GA. Mike has exhibited in solo and group shows at museums, galleries, and project spaces here in the states and abroad and is represented by Gazelli Art in London, UK and Schoolhouse Gallery in Provincetown, MA. In the Fall of 2013 Mike will begin a Visiting Professorship at Indiana University in Bloomington.

ABOUT THE GALLERY

Located in the historic Chestnut Square Building, threesquared is a contemporary art space dedicated to showcasing work that exemplifies conceptual and aesthetic expertise. We aim to create a forum for discussion and foster a greater sense of artistic community in Nashville. threesquared was founded by Dane Carder, whose studio space currently houses the gallery. Sara Estes is the curator. Aside from opening parties, the gallery is open by appointment. For more information, visit threesquaredgallery.com.
