WINTER'S NEST: A Drawing Project by Paul Collins

March 22 - April 19, 2013

Opening Reception: Friday, March 22, 6-9 pm

This spring, threesquared is proud to present brand new work by artist and Austin Peay State University professor Paul Collins. The exhibition will feature a large-scale installation of over 30 ink drawings on stained paper ground. The drawings meditate on the vibrancy of interior spaces, the continuity of restlessness, the imperative of fantasy, and the periodic need for a place to hide out. Paul Collins received a BFA from Dartmouth College and an MFA in painting and printmaking from Yale University.

ABOUT THE GALLERY

Located in the historic Chestnut Square Building, threesquared is a contemporary art space dedicated to showcasing work that exemplifies conceptual and aesthetic expertise. We aim to create a forum for discussion and foster a greater sense of artistic community in Nashville. threesquared was founded by Dane Carder, whose studio space currently houses the gallery. Sara Estes is the gallery director and curator. Aside from opening parties, the gallery is open by appointment. For more information, visit threesquaredgallery.com.
